1. Say to candidates:

Items 1–7 constitute Section A of this paper. They are based on an extract, which I will read to you. You will be given two minutes to read the items before you listen to the extract. I will read the extract to you twice.

You are required to listen carefully to the extract before answering the items. You may make notes while you listen to the reading. You must NOT begin to answer the items until you are told to do so.

You are required to respond to the items on your answer sheet by selecting the correct option from the four options lettered A–D.

2. Say to candidates:

You now have two minutes to read through Items 1 to 7.

3. Two minutes later, say to candidates:

Now listen carefully while I read this extract twice. Remember, you may make notes as I read.

4. Read the following extract twice at normal reading pace. (DO NOT dictate the passage for candidates to write.)

Spring weather came on rather suddenly, the unsealing of buds that had long been swollen, accomplishing itself in the space of one warm night. The rush of sap in the veins of the trees could almost be heard. The flowers of late April took up a position unseen, and looked as if they had been blooming a long while, though there had been no trace of them the day before yesterday; birds began to not mind getting wet. In-door people said they had heard the nightingale, to which out-door people replied contemptuously that they had heard him a fortnight before.

(Thomas Hardy, The Woodlanders)

5. After you have read the extract the first time, pause for a few seconds and then say to candidates:

I shall now read the extract a second time.

6. After you have read the extract a second time, pause for a few seconds and then say to candidates:

You have 90 minutes to answer all the items on Paper 01. When you are finished answering those items which are based on this extract, go straight to Section B and answer Items 8 to 45. Do not wait for any further instructions. I will tell you when the last 15 minutes are left.

7. Quietly invite the invigilator to take over the examination process.

Instructions to the Invigilator

8. Seventy-five minutes later, tell candidates that they have 15 minutes left.
9. Fifteen minutes later, at the end of the allotted 90 minutes, collect all papers and dismiss candidates
